

Inhalt

Cleaning and coating of drying cylinder

6

Abstract

The improvements for surface treatment of drying cylinders in the paper industry can be achieved by targeted cleaning, using cleaning blades, pressurized showers and spray systems. To reduce energy requirement for drying, controls are required for any spray and shower application.